Media Release---Lawrence Police Assist Kansas City Kansas Police
October 23, 2009

Lawrence Police assisted Kansas City Kansas Police in the apprehension of a suspect wanted in an armed robbery in which two people were shot. At 8:19am this morning, Lawrence Police were called to North Third Street and KTA where a school bus from Schlagel school in Kansas City was stopped. The bus driver had been asked to delay travel to Manhattan, Kansas due to a possible suspect on the bus. Lawrence Police evacuated all of the passengers, identified the suspect, and conducted a search of the immediate area incident to the arrest. Teachers aboard the bus conducted a safety search. No weapon was recovered. The suspect was taken into custody by Kansas City, Kansas officers who arrived on the scene. All further questions should be referred to the Kansas City Kansas Police Department.
